

The Design Network of NELDHA presents

Career Explorations in Landscape Design And Landscape Design History

---

What can you do with a Landscape Institute education?

Sunday, February 28, 2010 12:30-2:30 PM

Landscape Institute at the BAC, 320 Newbury St, Boston, MA, Cascieri Hall

Join the Design Network of the New England Landscape Design and History Association for an afternoon program exploring the many exciting fields of work possible with an education in landscape design, history, or preservation. Network with others who have developed successful careers with their Landscape Institute education.

Our presenters:

Ellen Coppinger, City of Cambridge
Manager, DPW's Public and Private Partnerships Program

Anne Eccles, ALE Land Design
Public and Private Landscapes, LEED Gold Residential Landscape

Kim Smith, Kim Smith Designs
Author, illustrator, designer, photographer

Adriana O'Sullivan, Gardens In Style
Civic gardens, garden lecturer, commercial and residential landscapes

Marie Stella, Kirin Farm Landscape Design
Landscape historian, LI faculty member, designer of LEED Platinum home

Please RSVP by February 21st designnetwork@neldha.org