NELDHA
NEW ENGLAND LANDSCAPE DESIGN & HISTORY ASSOCIATION

What NELDHA can do for its Members...
Membership Benefits

REGULAR PROGRAMS

• THE DESIGN NETWORK
Offers monthly meetings from October through May. Informal discussions center on issues and practices related to landscape design. Workshops and tours introduce or refresh information needed in the profession.
The annual Career Exploration Day presents an opportunity to gather information and advice from practicing landscape professionals, historians and associated professionals. (Free to members. See NELDHA website for Program listings.)

• THE HISTORY NETWORK
Offers monthly meetings from October through May. Presentations and discussions concentrate on professional practice in historic research, preservation studies and landscape writings. (Free to members. See NELDHA website for Program listings.)

• BROWN BAG LUNCHEES
Current trends and issues of interest to members, students and landscape professionals are shared and discussed in informal gatherings. Bring your own lunch. (Free to members. See NELDHA website for Program listings.)

ANNUAL EVENTS

FALL TEA – A fall reception commences the membership year and features a distinguished speaker. (Free to members.)

ANNUAL DINNER MEETING – Held in early Spring, this gathering features a speaker renowned in a Landscape profession, and enables members to network with each other. The annual Resource Book and NELDHA’s Annual Report, is distributed. (A fee is charged for dinner. Guests may be invited.)

NELDHA’s outreach and marketing efforts on behalf of its membership focus on promoting the creation of quality landscapes that are sustainable and aesthetically pleasing.

NELDHA initiates and supports ongoing professional development through its program offerings.

NELDHA serves as the vehicle for networking with colleagues and for keeping up with current trends in landscape design and research, in horticulture, and in historic preservation.

PUBLICATIONS

Members receive Perspectives, a quarterly publication that features scholarly essays, interviews and book reviews. (Free to members)
